

TRAVEL INSPIRATION FOR OUR MOST LOYAL FLYERS

Hemispheres

OCTOBER 2020

Three Perfect Days

Wyoming

Where you can soar down the slopes at Jackson Hole Mountain Resort

America's Essential Cabin Escapes

The Hemi Q&A with Jeff Daniels

Running the Original Marathon in Greece

PRSR1 STD
US POSTAGE PAID
PEWAUKEE, WI
PERMIT 1886

A STAR ALLIANCE MEMBER

THE STAY

By Justin Goldman

Hand Over the Keys

Bungalows Key Largo offers a rare all-inclusive Florida getaway

In the 1948 film noir classic Key Largo, Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall take shelter from a hurricane at the Hotel Largo. No matter the weather, you'll find a movie star-worthy hideaway at Bungalows Key Largo. The lone adults-only all-inclusive resort in the Florida Keys debuted in late 2018, and shortly thereafter survived a catastrophe of its own—a fire that burned down its main lodge—before reopening late last year. Here, four Bogart movie quotes to help you unlock Key Largo.

“Rosie, are you cracked? The currents down there are fierce!”

Bogie and Katharine Hepburn braved river rapids in The African Queen, but the main draw in the Keys is the warm, placid water of Florida Bay. The resort offers all sorts of ways to take to the sea, from free kayaks and water trikes to the 56-foot catamaran Lady B. The best watercrafts of all, however, are the six-seat floating tiki huts, the S.S. Rum Runner and S.S. Margarita.

“The stuff that dreams are made of.”

There's no Maltese Falcon here, but visitors will feel as though they're in a dream at the Zen Garden Spa. Loosen up in the Himalayan salt room, then take a seat in the black bamboo garden and feel the weight of the world lift away.

“Of all the gin joints in all the towns in all the world...”

Bogart's characters liked their cocktails, and so will anyone who visits the Hemingway Bar, which is inspired by that other Florida Keys icon. (The walls are furnished with replica tiles from Hem's house in Key West.) After you finish your Calle Ocho (a rum old-fashioned with chocolate and mole bitters), take a seat at Bogie and Bacall's, the resort's fine-dining restaurant, for a tasting-menu dinner. Offerings change daily, but you might see dishes such as chili-rum-glazed chicken roulade or almond-crusted mahi mahi with cilantro-lime vinaigrette.

“I'll bet you $105,000 you go to sleep before I do.”

The property's 135 bougainvillea-laced bungalows offer cool respite at the end of the day, but you don't need to be on a treasure hunt in the Sierra Madre to find a reason to stay awake. One look at the soaking tub and outdoor shower on your veranda will remind you that some things are worth more than gold. Minimum two-night stay, from $1,200 per night, all-inclusive; bungalowskeylargo.com

Sail Away to Key Largo: Have it all, just like Bogie and Bacall. To visit picturesque Key Largo, book a United flight to Fort Lauderdale or Miami.

