A sunny, adults-only paradise.

SPRING IS TIME TO ESCAPE the indoors and venture back out to sunny skies and warm weather. But you need a plan otherwise you will find yourself lounging on a crowded public beach. Solution: Bungalows Key Largo. The resort gives you all-inclusive access to any of Key Largo's beautiful homes away from home. Surrounding it all is the relaxing, natural, protected Floridian beauty that forms a barrier against care, cold, and crowds.

Picture: 135 individual bungalows surrounded by the tranquil beauty of the Gulf of Mexico. No kids allowed. Instead, guests 21 and older take advantage of each bungalow's private veranda outfitted with outside rain showers and soaking tubs, a spa bathroom with rainfall shower, a 60-inch Beyond TV, daily housekeeping and turndown service. Each bungalow is outfitted with two cruiser bikes for getting around the resort.

RELAX AND ENJOY the views from the elegantly appointed guest rooms.

ACTIVITIES ABOUND, including exploring the waterways by paddle board or boat.

TRAVEL

Wake up at dawn for sunrise yoga, or enjoy Key Largo's outdoor tiki hut gym and Zen Garden, the resort's spa. Hit the water with paddleboards, water trikes, and kayaks, or take it easy on one of their BYOB Tiki Boats, S.S. Margarita and S.S. Rum Runner. Or charter and pilot a Duffy Electric Boat with your loved one for a romantic evening. If paradise makes you restless, hit the road on an excursion. Scenic state and national parks are a quick trip away, or hit the waters for scuba diving, snorkeling, sport fishing, eco-tours, beaches, and dolphin encounter programs in the "Diving Capital of the World."

In between adventures, stop in for a bite at one of three distinct restaurants or the oceanfront Sunset Tiki Bar, all included—plus premium drinks—with your stay. Head to Sea Señor for fresh seafood and a taste of Mexico. Drop in at Fish Tales, a relaxed seaside gem with a breakfast buffet complete with made-to-order omelets and Bloody Mary and mimosa stations. Bogie & Bacall's, a personal favorite, was an elegant steakhouse, adjacent to the famous Hemingway Bar.

We left in a trance, and we'll definitely be back to Bungalows Key Largo and its endless tropical sunsets. Maybe next time we fly south, we'll stay for the whole season. DT
